INTEL FELLOW FRED POLLACK ADDRESSES INSTITUTIONAL PORTFOLIO MANAGERS AND INVESTORS AT PGR TECH INVESTMENT CONFERENCE

Semiconductors, Datacenters, Telecom, Mobile Computing, Consumer Electronic, Alternative Energy among Hot Topics Covered by 20 Additional Leading Industry Experts

Mountain View, Calif. (June 3, 2009) – Primary Global Research, LLC (PGR) hosted “Technology Investment: Primary Global Perspectives,” a conference for institutional investors and analysts, yesterday at the Harvard Club of New York City. Following a keynote address by (Retired) Intel Fellow Fred Pollack, the day featured four separate panel discussions:

- The Datacenter: Virtualization and Cloud Computing
- Telecom, Cable and Networking
- Mobile Computing & Consumer Electronics
- Energy Technologies: Solar and Wind

Conference attendees benefited greatly by receiving current, insightful, investable intelligence from leading industry sources. “The PGR Technology Investment Conference clearly demonstrated our ability to assemble a group of outstanding, distinguished experts who have the range of proficiency and know-how that spans today’s technology issues that challenge the global investor,” commented Unni Narayanan, Ph.D., president and chief executive officer of PGR. “The event helped to showcase our growing capacity to provide institutional investors with access to the latest and most critical intelligence and data that drive investment strategy.”

Among the companies discussed by PGR experts at the panel sessions were Intel (INTC), Qualcomm (QCOM), Texas Instruments (TXM), Cisco (CSCO), First Solar (FSLR), Research in Motion (RIMM), Chevron Corp. (CVX), Verizon (VZ) and more.
